

LIBERAL ARTS AND SOCIAL SCIENCES

Attention Students!!!

Nominate an LAS Faculty Member for an Excellence in Teaching Award

This is your opportunity to recognize a College of Liberal Arts and Social Sciences faculty member who has significantly influenced your studies at DePaul and through your nomination to have a direct effect on the quality of teaching in the College.

To nominate a faculty member, write a letter to the LAS Awards Committee explaining why this faculty member should be considered for the award. In your letter, describe in detail the ways in which this faculty member excels as a teacher. You may submit a letter individually, or you may get together with other students and submit a joint letter. All nominating letters will remain confidential.

Faculty members eligible for consideration must have completed three full years of teaching at DePaul by Fall 2014 and must teach at least three degree credit courses at DePaul during an academic year.

Nomination letters are due by Monday, February 16th. Please submit your letter of nomination to <https://lascollege.depaul.edu/ExcellenceinTeaching>. Please feel free to contact Shajuan Young at 773.325.4161 if you have any questions.
